Message from the Interim Head Teacher

This week has been a kickstarter to celebrations across the school and the sun has been out to help us enjoy every moment.

Our children looked great in their winter uniforms for the whole school photograph. The photographer commented on the patience demonstrated by our students, especially the juniors as they worked to get every child into the best place for their huge smiles to be clearly seen.

Across the school was an air of nervous excitement as those children who had been working very hard on their LAMDA pieces awaited their turn to show off their skills. If the few practice pieces I have heard are anything to go by then I am assured of excellent results throughout. Thursday's End of Academic Year Mass, organised by Miss Archer, allowed our school to join in the celebration of our first communicants. Their dresses, suits and robes were immaculate. Our children filled the church with joy, happiness and love as they enthusiastically joined in on every song. Parishioners were keen to comment on how wonderful their presence made the mass. Many thanks to Fr Sebastian, Fr Christophe and the church congregation for welcoming us.

I hope to see many of you tomorrow at the Summer Fayre. The weather forecast is good and the World Cup starts late in the day allowing lots of time for us to enjoy the BBQ and stalls together. I am looking forward to it.

Year 2 Trip to Buckinghamshire County Museum and Roald Dahl Gallery

On Thursday 28th June Year 2 went on a wonderful trip to the Roald Dahl Gallery in Buckinghamshire. We started off with a workshop where we made our own disgusting beards full of old food, just like Mr Twit's. If we ever feel like we are going to be a Twit we just have to look in the mirrors and remind ourselves what a Mr Twit looks like. After a lovely lunch we headed over to the Roald Dahl Gallery. First we talked about Roald Dahl. The people from the Gallery were very impressed with all of the things we already knew about Roald Dahl himself and all of the stories he had written.

We then got to investigate the interactive Gallery. We saw the pipe that Augustus Gloop got sucked into in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, we went into Matilda's Library (luckily no-one was put in the Chokey), we investigated bugs under a microscope in James' giant peach, we listened to different ways of making sounds in the BFG sound area and we explored Fantastic Mr Fox's tunnel.

We then went upstairs into the sensory room where we got to see Mr and Mrs Twit's upside down living room. Those of us who were brave enough put our hands into the feely holes to work out what was hidden in Mr and Mrs Twits room. There were so many things to investigate and lots of amazing optical illusions. We then got shrunk down into the size of someone's hand, just like Mike Teavee in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Then it was time for us to go but not before going for a ride in Charlie's Great Glass Elevator.

We all had a brilliant day and the people at the museum commented on what a lovely and polite group of children we were.

Holy Communion

What a wonderful celebration of the children's Holy Communion! This photo really captures a lovely moment of teamwork whereby the girls formed a line to help with getting changed. Thank you to all of those who attended and well done to the Year 3 communicants of 2018!
